THE 1964 CANUSARAGO

The staff of the 1964 Canusarago proudly presents the 22nd edition of our yearbook. We hope the material in this book has captured in words and pictures, a source of fond memories for each one of you; so you may look through the pages of this yearbook and recall all the wonderful experiences you had in 1964.

The staff would like to extend grateful acknowledgements to the following people who helped make this yearbook possible—Mr. Stanley Schyler, our advisor; Mr. Carl Chambers, our consultant from Delmar Printing Company; The Prestwood Photography Company, Mr. Paul Gresh, our Principal; Mrs. Ruth Hartzell, the High School Secretary; and the many other people who made this publication possible.

—The Yearbook Staff—

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;
Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,
And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.
I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence;
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost

MR. DONALD MILLER

DEDICATION

WE DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK TO YOU, MR. MILLER . . .

The Class of 1964 is glad to dedicate our yearbook, Canusarago, to our friend Mr. Donald Miller.

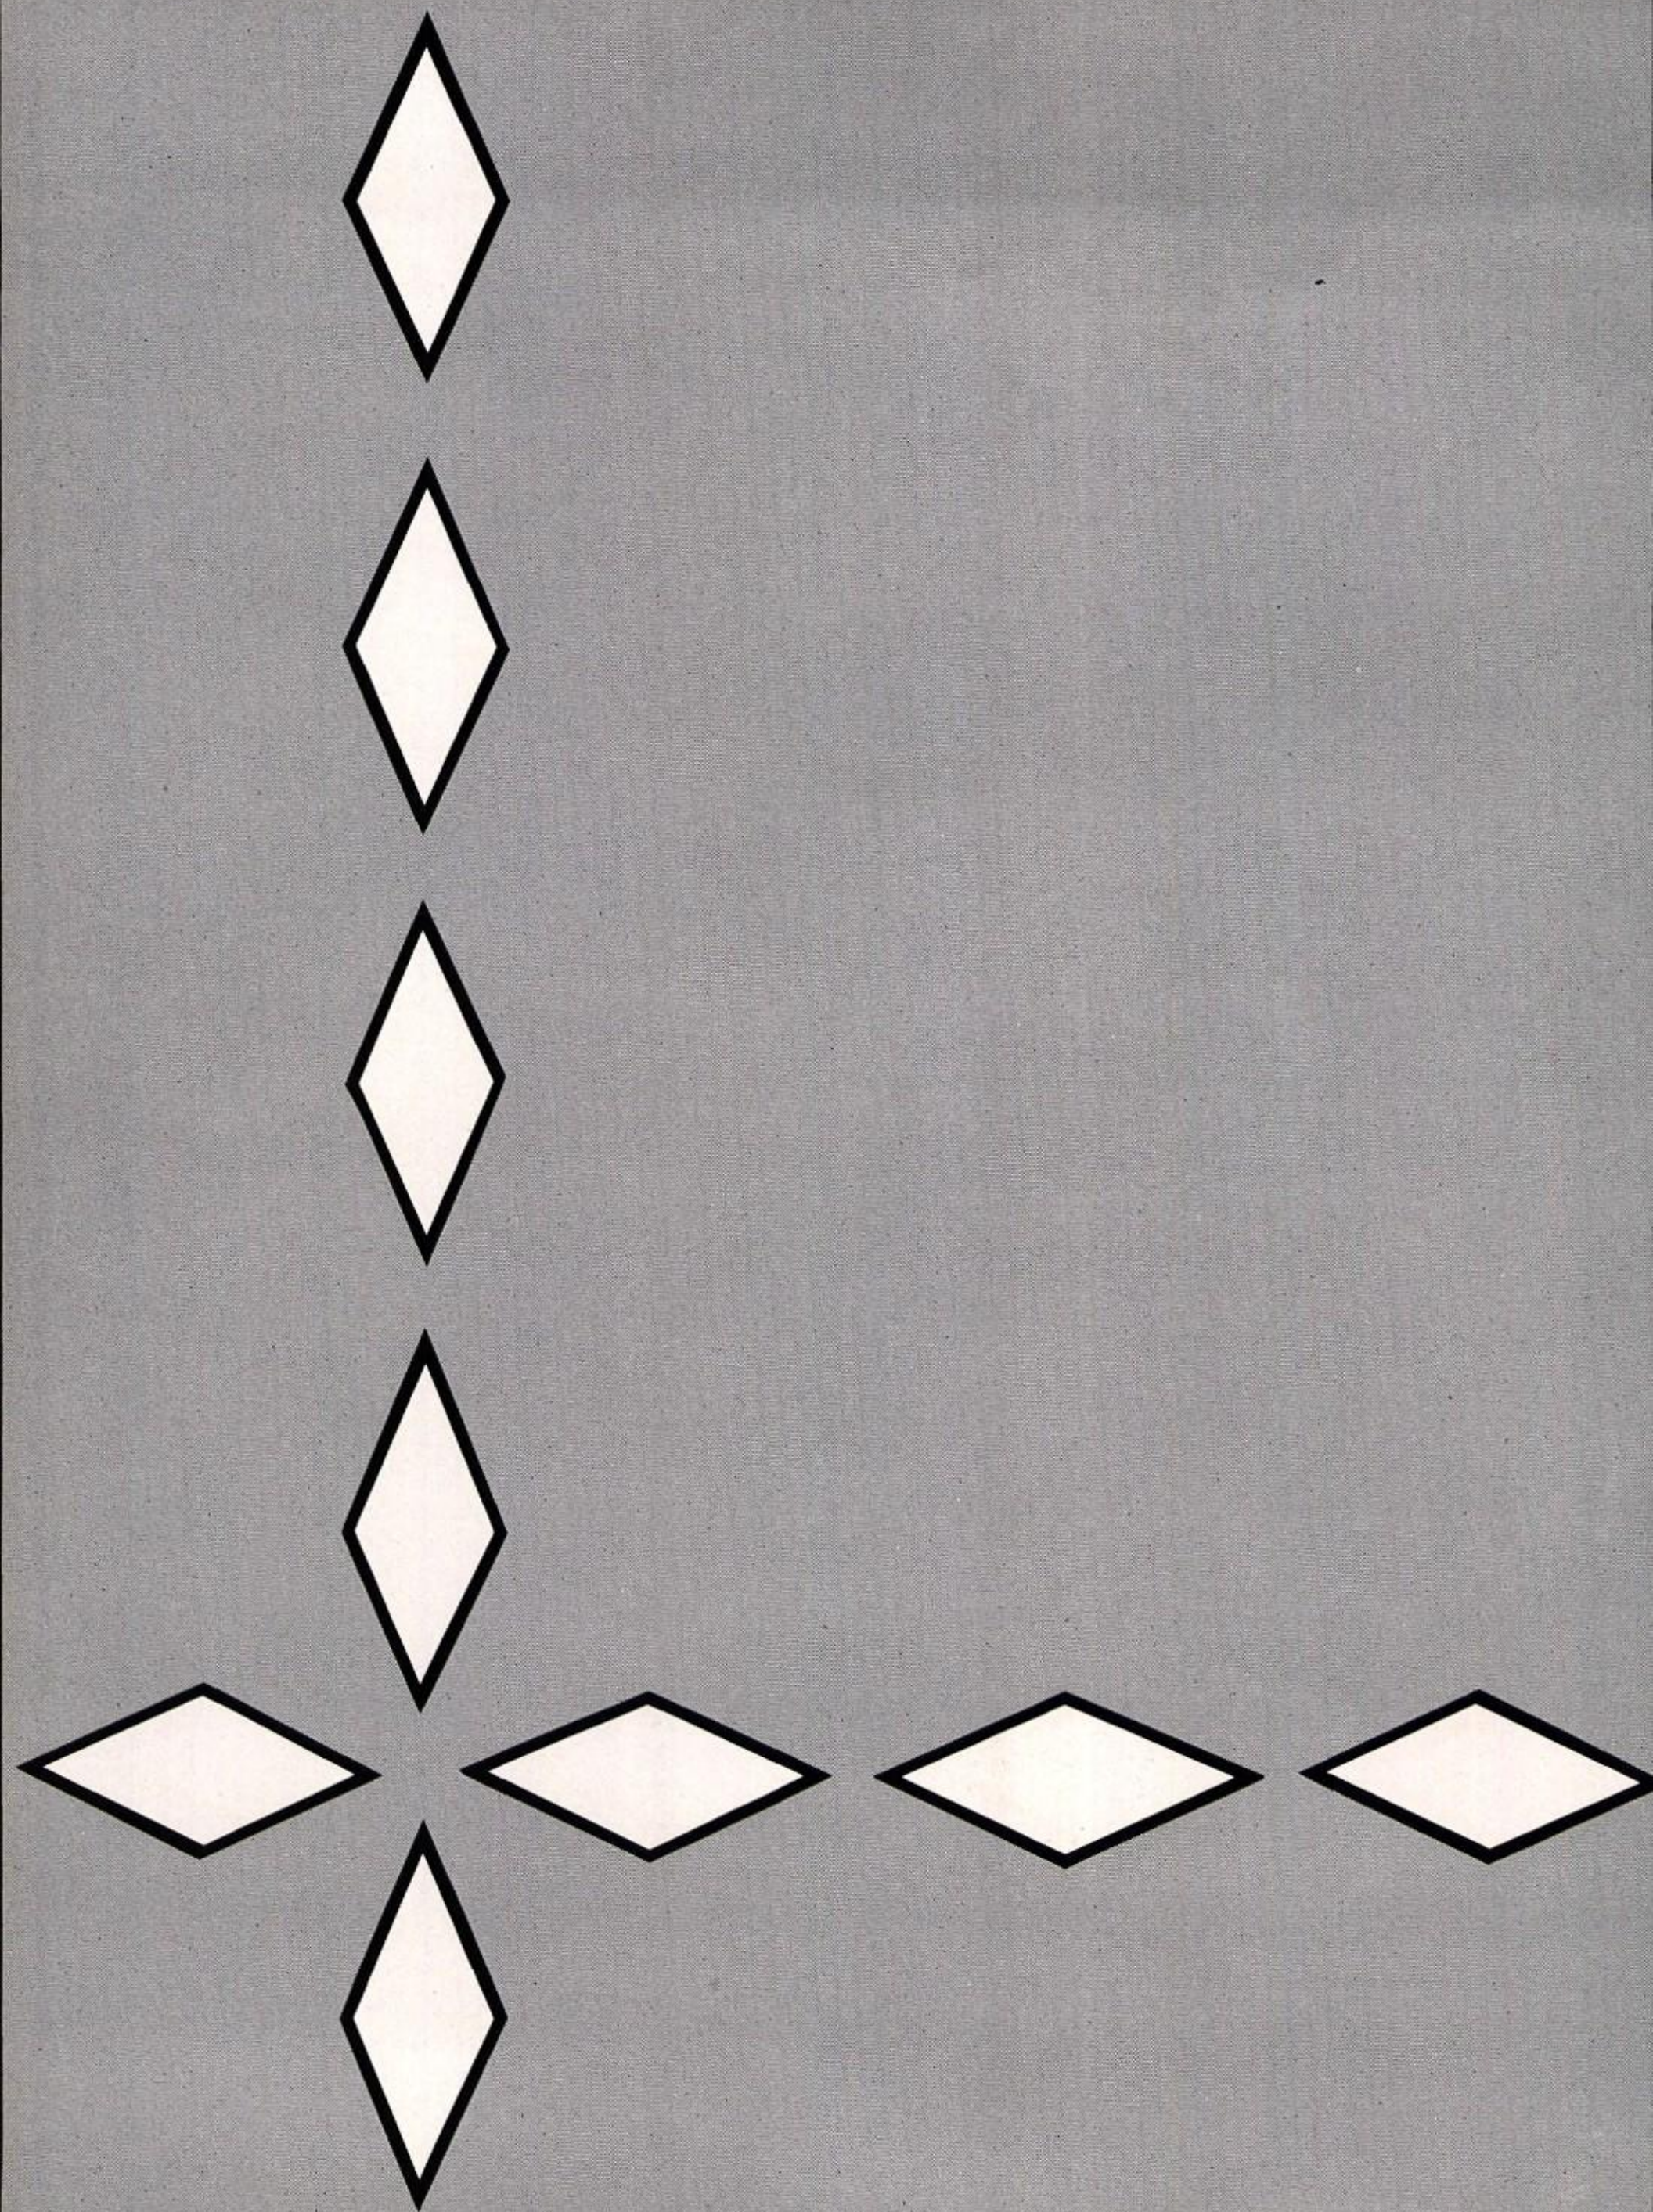

Mr. Miller, "Bony" to his many friends and associates at Muncy High, has held the position of head custodian for many years. He not only efficiently performs his regular duties around the school but has always cheerfully helped the students with their many problems such as preparing for class plays, concerts, athletic events, dances, etc.

Mr. Miller was born in Pennsdale in 1934. He is a graduate of Muncy High, Class of 1952, and a former varsity wrestler. His favorite sports are wrestling and hunting.

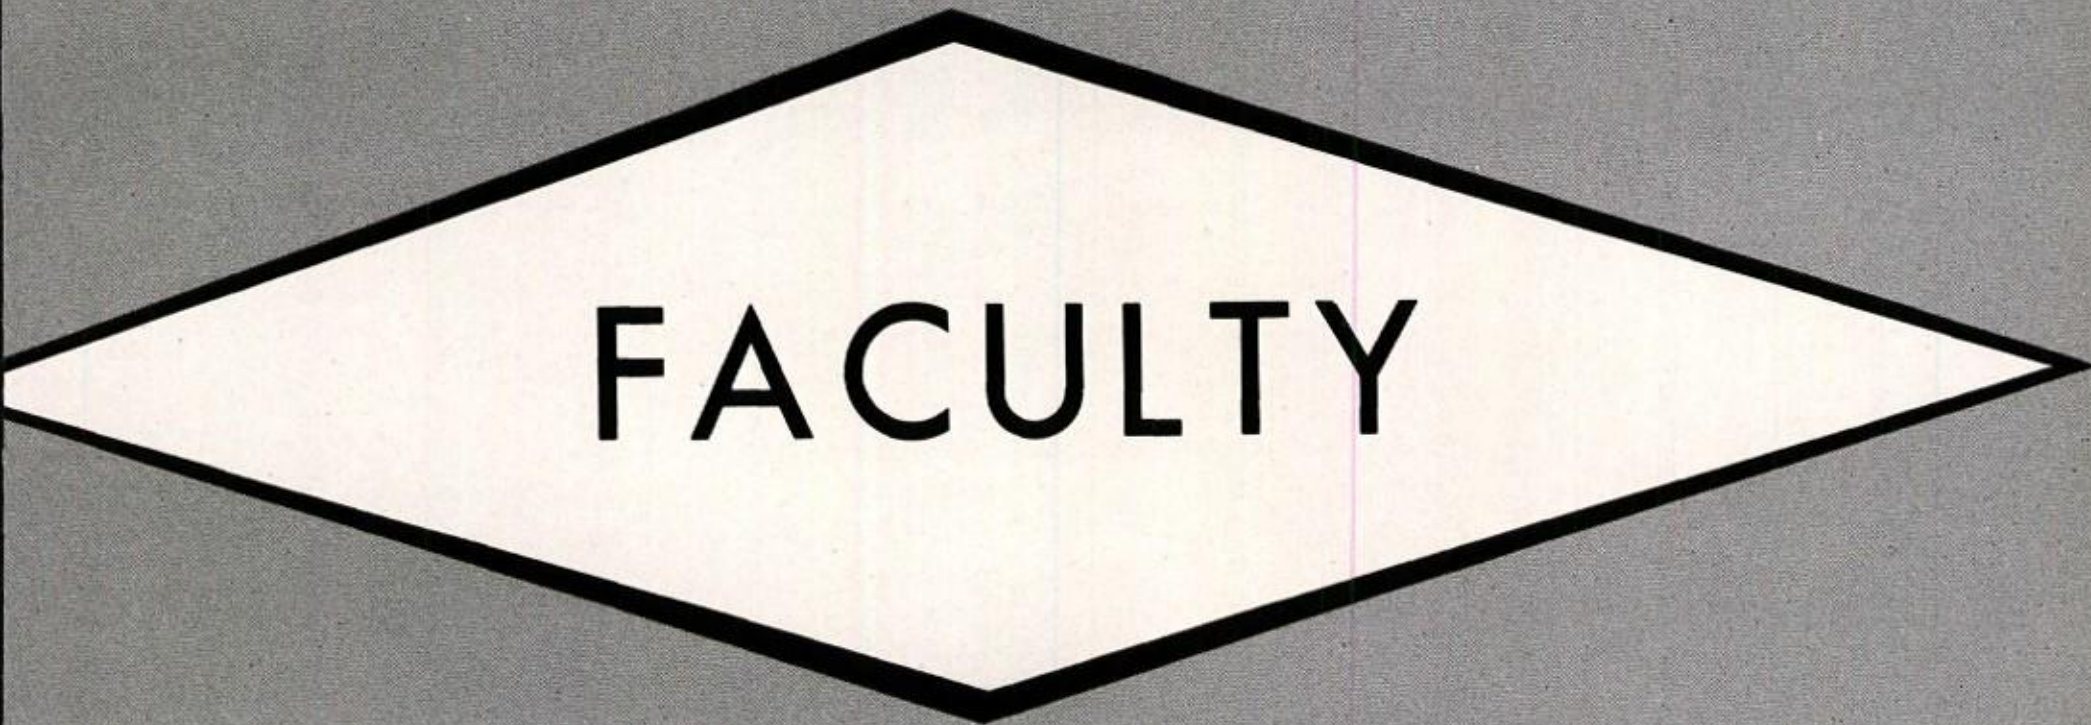

Mr. Miller is married to the former Ann Louise Buhl. They are the proud parents of five children: Tommy, Roxann, Michael, Jimmy, and Shonny Lynn.

The Class of 1964 will always cherish the fond memories of one of their really true friends during their school years, Bony Miller.

“School seeks to get you ready for examination; Life gives the finals.”

We wish each of you happiness and success as you embark upon your chosen career.

Mr. Paul Gresh

Each of you now bears the mark of Muncy High School. We know that time will increase the value of your diplomas, and will add satisfaction to your accomplishments. Even at this late date no one can exactly predict which ones will eventually achieve greatest success.

Members of the society, chosen from grades ten through twelve on a basis of scholarship, leadership, and character, published the student handbook, the Pathfinder, under the direction of Editor, Kathy Long.

All members must meet the requirements stated in the Honor Society Pledge:

I pledge to maintain my high scholastic standing, to hold an untarnished character as a fundamental and worthy leader, and to give myself freely in service to others. In so doing I shall prove myself deserving as a member of the National Honor Society.

CLASS PLAY

"Night of January 16" is the court trial of Karen Andre who is accused of murdering Bjorn Faulkner, the financial king of the world. The play is a comedy-drama with a succession of witnesses who both build the plot and add humor to the presentation. Some of these witnesses include: Dr. Kirkland who examined the body of the murdered man; Homer Van Fleet, the detective hired to watch Mr. Faulkner; Mrs. John Hutchins, the cleaning lady of the Faulkner Building; Officer Sweeney, the policeman who investigated the case; Jane Chandler, Handwriting expert; Nancy Lee Faulkner, Bjorn' Faulkner's widow; Magda Svenson, Karen Andre's maid; John Graham Whitfield, Nancy Lee's father; Sigurd Jungquist, Faulkner's secretary; Larry Regan, a gangster in love with Karen Andre; and "Ruby" Van Renseslaer, a dancer whose husband was also killed on the night of January 16.

What was the verdict? It could be guilty or not guilty. The jury was chosen from the audience each night the play was presented.

What was your verdict?

This year the class play was again directed by Mr. Thomas O'Boyle. He spent many hours working with the cast of the play to produce a very successful "Night of January 16".

MARCHING BAND

This year the school purchased lights for the football field allowing Muncy to have all their home games on Saturday night. The Muncy High School Band kept up with the changing times by purchasing lighted batons of different colors. These lights were worn on the hats of the band-members during half-time shows, and when the field lights were turned off, the spectators enjoyed a spectacular show.

The band worked hard each morning before school preparing for the football game that week. This year the band had combined half-time shows with South Williamsport and Hughesville High School Bands. The band's schedule included the Mummies' Parade in October.

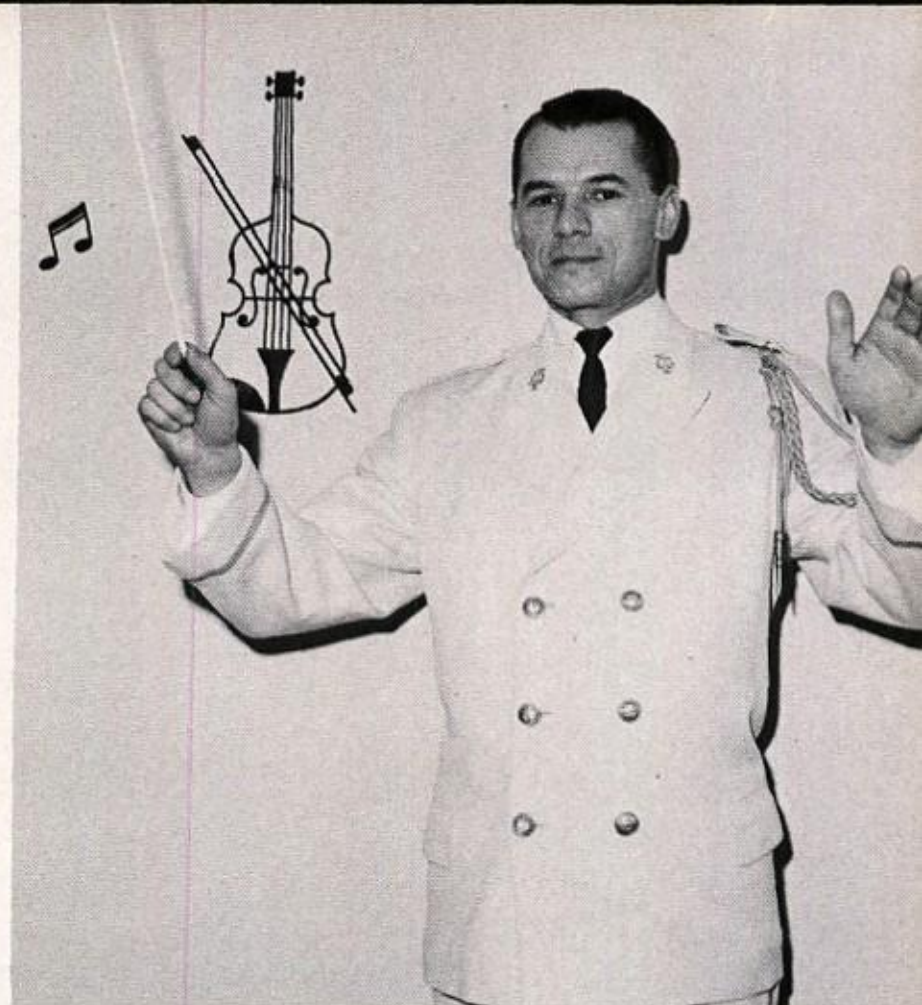

This year the Muncy High School Band was again under the capable direction of Theron Lewis.

CONCERT BAND

As soon as the last football half-time crowd has been entertained, the concert season officially begins for the members of the Muncy High School Band. During concert Season the band practices three times a week before school, preparing for their concert in early spring. This year the concert was held in March.

Mr. Lewis, Band Director

This year's wrestling squad defeated B.E.N. in their last match, and won a share of the West Branch Conference Title. This marks the third consecutive year in which Coach Earl Poust's Boys have won or shared the West Branch Conference Title.

Although hampered by injuries and sickness, the team compiled a 10-3 record. Muncy defeated all conference matches, with the exception of Hughesville. The other two losses were to non-conference foes Williamsport and Lewisburg.

This year was composed of eleven graduating seniors—they are; Ed Heincelman, Kenny Hilner, Lee Houseknect, Gary Bontamase, Gary Stutzman, John Konkle, Garry Burgard, Bob Johnson, Tom Brittain, Matt White and Gerald Frick.

Although the loss of these seniors will be felt, the Junior Varsity under the direction of Lynn Poust Compiled A fine 7-1 record and will probably do a fine job of filling the shoes of graduated members.

This cheer is just one of the many varied cheers which the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders use to boost the MHS team on to victory. At every athletic event during the year, the cheerleaders were there to lead the students in cheers and to keep the school spirit high although we were not always winning.

Miss Patricia Mahaffey is the advisor for both the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders.

GYM TEAM

Breneisen executes a back lever.

Gymnasts are among the world's least publicized athletes. They execute in a single evening more daring and more muscular feats than some football and basketball players are called upon to do in an entire season. But their activities lack the so-called "mob appeal" and during a full season attract as many spectators as are lured to a baseball park in a single afternoon.

Gymnastics has such a wide range of movements as to attract the most awkward beginner or the most extremely well trained performer; it is interesting because the movements are useful in many of life's situations. However, to become a skilled gymnast many hours of practice and a great deal of patience are required.

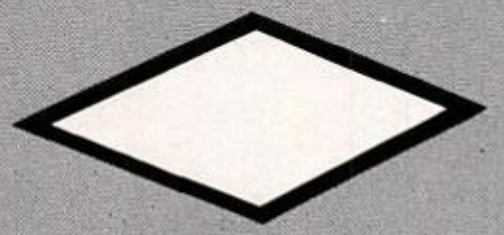

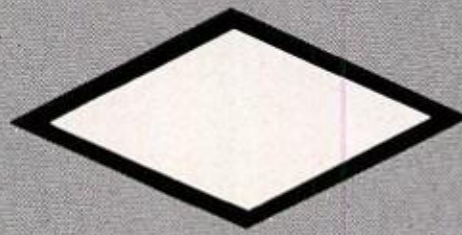

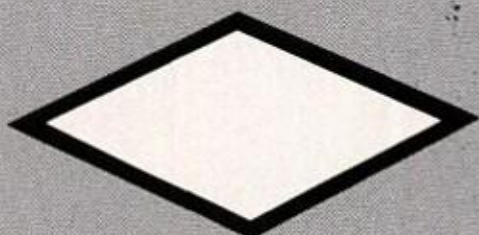

Under the direction of Mr. Sauress, the Athletic Director, our gym team has progressed from a minor sport of interest to only a few students to a competitive varsity sport.

“THE CLASS OF 1964”

For the past three years, the senior class through the guidance of Mr. William Maroney, our class advisor, has worked successfully to earn the funds that are necessary for the yearbook and other senior activities.

During our senior year, we will never forget—Mr. Grieco's birthday party when he wasn't there and the stomach aches we got from the stale cake we had when he finally did come back . . . the mad rush downstairs everyday at 12:29 . . . the Beatle Mania that hit a few of our seniors particularly hard . . . the huge snowstorm that “unfortunately” caused our school to close for two days . . . our beautiful May Day . . . those long Yearbook marathons which finally produced this book . . . the dazed expression on the face of a trig student after a two-day test . . . the days when the mumps and measles diminished the number of our Senior Class . . . the hours wasted in “various activities” in study hall . . . the Senior Class's “celebrations” before Christmas vacation . . . the hours toiling over practice sets . . . the fun we had preparing for The Night of January 16th . . . those cold, wet mornings decorating the football field . . . all the news we got from Mr. Lynn Poust . . .

the big upset of the year, MUNCY 23, BEN 22 . . . those exciting physics labs . . . the big lock hunt when Mr. Gresh confiscated all unlocked locks . . . the sore backsides of the students who came in contact with Mr. Zukavckas's paddle . . . all the time we spent in the office pestering Mrs. Hartzell . . . the wild episodes handed in as short stories for Mrs. Benion . . . our lovely Senior Prom . . . Class Day—and our Big moment—GRADUATION.

We would like to express our most sincere thanks to Mr. Maroney who helped to make our last days at Muncy High School memorable ones.

As we look back through the years we realize that no other event, person or thing will make a greater impression on us than Muncy High School. Our school has molded us into the individuals that we are. We, as the “Class of 64”, will endeavor to use to the best, not only all that we have learned during our school years, but also, all those experiences gained through living as a member of the society we cherish, honor and shall uphold so long as we live.

IN MEMORIAM

President John F. Kennedy
1917-1963

Our school mourns.

DEATH OF A GREAT MAN

The man rode on with head held high,
As the sun beat down from the cloudless sky.
A crowd of thousands was gathered about,
when suddenly those shots rang out.

The tall man slumped against his wife,
and each moment ebbed away his life.
The shot had struck him in the head . . .
And now the question—Alive? or Dead?

The car sped off carrying him away . . .
but soon a priest would come to say in answer to our fears and dread—
John F. Kennedy is dead.

Soon all countries and nations heard the sorrowful and tragic word.
His name was first on every breath,
and all the world did mourn his death.

His loss was felt by every race,
and sad tears stained the nation's face.
For he who tried and tried again
to preserve equality for all men.

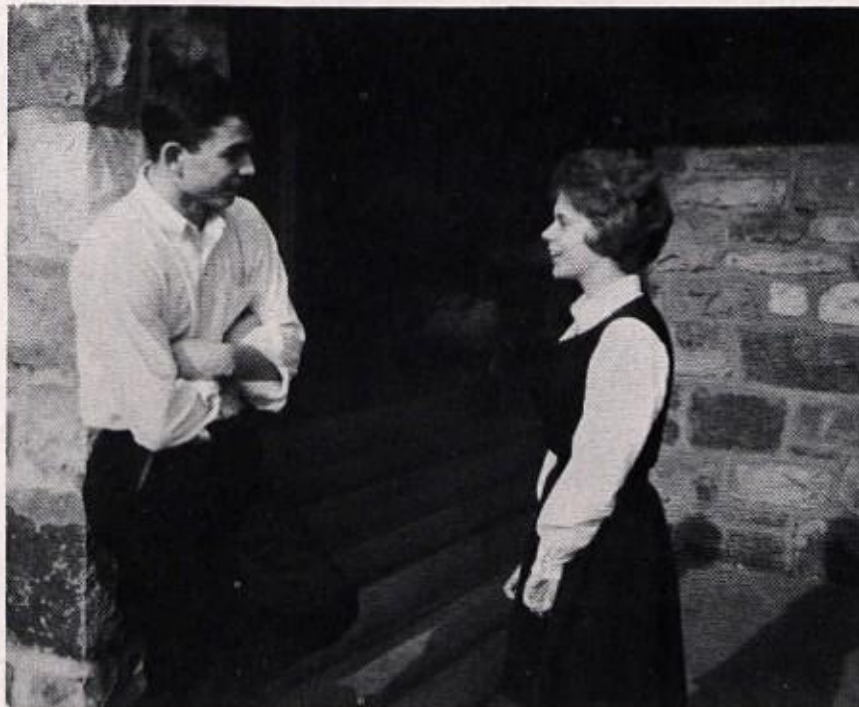

Although he is gone his memory remains,
all mankind will recall his name . . .
and all who understand know we have lost a great man.
